There was some activity in the Petroleum market to

There was some activity in the Petroleum market to day, the reported transactions having aggregated 3,800 harrais. At points between Boyd and Oil City the demand was fair at $4.00, and at the latter point at $4.20 en broad gauge cars. The decline in the Pittsburgh and New York markets has cannot the buyers for them to draw out. The greater part of the smeunt that changed hands to-day, was purchased to apply against Redned sold by Cieveland refiners at New York during the late excitement. The rais of 500 barrels at Blood Farm, at $4.20, was for the borst market. At Titusville and other points north of Boyd Farm, there was but it itseloing, which was principally on account of the sellers being unatting to submit to the lower prices offered. The feeling among dealers on the Creek t onesed. The feeling among desers on the Creek is now of a bearish nature. The general desire among them is to force prices down as fast as possible, preparatory to filling fron tunkegs, &c., and in this they are assettly the course of the co. saids markets. The producers however, who have tankegs are preparing to resist a sowever, who care issuing his preparing sevenise a decline by storing their production, and holding at $4.00 and upwards. The producers who control large productions, are as a rule, able to adopt the court they are well supplied with funds, must of them is so'd out their atoms on the last rise.
